

Please do not turn off local weather and traffic from XM. This is a valuable service that has actually helped improve the quality of our lives. They broadcast important life-saving weather information via voice and the text message display. For example, "FLOOD WARNING" appeared on my XM receiver, and caused my family to take immediate action.